

The inclusion of a broadcast flag in digital Television transmissions will serve only to further increase the already grossly over-expanded control over the consumers' consumption of media, and further erode the failing notion of fair-use. I emphatically request that proceeding 02-230 not be persued. It will have far-reaching chilling effects in the home entertainment industry.